

FAITH CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

Ninth Grade Summer Reading Assignment 2024

Complete the following two assignments to turn in on the first day of school.

1. Each student will read the following:

• A Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass, an American Slave, by Frederick Douglass

- Students are expected to make marginal and textual notes as they read to show evidence of “active” reading, and they should clearly mark any parts of the text where they have questions. Pay special attention to Douglass’s words about religion. (Annotations are worth 50 points, so be THOROUGH.)
- Students should also answer the comprehension questions (handout).
- During the first week of class, students will prepare for a paper on the “the slaveholding religion of the South.”

2. Each student will also read one book chosen from the Grade 8-9 Book List (attached at the end of this document). For that book, the student will complete a five-paragraph essay, to be turned in on the first day of school. Students may write their essays on one of the following topics:

1. A comparison between two of the major characters, using specific examples from the text. Examples must be cited in MLA format, whether or not they are quoted.
2. An explanation of a major theme of the book with supporting quotes. Examples must be cited in MLA format, whether or not they are quoted.
3. A discussion of setting (time, place, mood/atmosphere) with specific examples of how the setting advances the plot. Examples must be cited in MLA format, whether or not they are quoted.
4. For non-fiction: A description of challenges faced and how they were overcome, using specific examples from the text. Examples must be cited in MLA format, whether or not they are quoted.
